Fig. 14. Galileo spent eighteen years at Padua, culminating with his great astronomical discoveries in the winter between 1609 and 1610. The participants spread through downtown discovering places associated with Galileo.